Mrs. Lizzie F. Baldy's Latest Scheme to Catch the Unwary.

THE CO-OPERATIVE COLONY PROMISES A TRUE ELYSIUM

BUT THERE ARE SOME CONDITIONS.

As the reporter entered the building yesterday morning he saw this same woman busy engaged with some craning something that some body had written in pencil at the bottom of the circular these words: 'This concern is a fake, and don't you forget it.'

The reporter remarked that a brother of his had asked him to make inquiries for him, and he asked whether he could also be troubled for.

'Oh, yes,' she replied, 'I will take anybody who can pay us the $100.'

Mrs. Baldy refused to explain any further, and concluded by saying that she expected to see the first lot of members to start for Baltimore about the 1st of March.

Mrs. Baldy is well known to the police in New York and Baltimore. She was arrested in Baltimore last March on a telegram from Sup. Byrnes on a charge of grand larceny and...

PASTOR EDWARDS RESIGNS.

His Disbelief in a Material Hell Worked His Undoing.

FREEPORT, Jan. 31.—It is learned here that Rev. Charles Edwards has resigned as pastor of the Andysville Baptist Church and has accepted his invitation to withdraw from the Long Island Baptist Association.

The cause of Pastor Edwards' resignation is said to be traceable to the fact that he refuses to accept the existence of a material hell as a punishment for the commission of offenses. His resignation, it is reported, was published in a pamphlet, has been widely circulated, and has called down upon the head of the pastor much abuse and criticism.

A BRIDE SENT TO JAIL.

Sequel to a Queer Wedding Ceremony at Orange.

ORANGE, Jan. 31.—Mrs. Maggie Knight, who recently figured in a sensational marriage performed by Justice Charles Stewart, of this city, is now in the Essex County Jail, at Newark, charged with being a disorderly person.

Mrs. Knight, who is a well-educated Englishwoman and claims to have been a widow previous to her recent marriage, came to Orange about four months ago and located at No. 27 Hill street. One evening in the middle of December she, in company with James Harrison, a well-known young man about town, James Luntzer and another woman, called on Justice Stewart, and the wedding ceremony was performed.

Notwithstanding the factitious names Justice Stewart declared the marriage to be legal, and Harrison and Mrs. Knight have since been living together. Since the woman's first husband died in 1887, she has been maintaining a substantial life to raise money for the purpose of procuring her husband's freedom, where she promises to give him the profits of her business.

EAGER FOR RESTORATION.

Men of the Sixty-ninth Receive Tidings of Great Joy—They Cheer Cal.

The last day of the formal existence of Companies B, E, F, G and H, of the Sixty-ninth, was celebrated by a reception ordered them last evening at Ledwith's Hall, Forty-fifth street and Third avenue, by Lieut.-Col. James Moran.

Col. Moran announced to the 60 men who filled the hall that the old companies would be reconstituted. The World contained the news that Col. Flavel had come to the aid of the men. The official statement issued by the adjutant, Lieut. Col. Moran and 'The World' to the effect that Col. Moran said that he was authorized to receive the companies and to reconstitute them.

When Baldy was asked, we give her Castoria, when she was a child, she said for Castoria, when she became Mrs. she gave them Castoria, when she had children, she gave them Castoria.

The pews in Calvary Church were all filled when the marriage of Miss M. Louise Graves and Dr. Walter Chappell took place yesterday at 4 P. M.

The bride wore a handsome white satin gown, with draperies and ruffles of point lace, caught with orange blossoms on the skirt, and several diamond ornaments on the corsage.

There was a reception later at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Arthur H. Graves, former President of the St. Nicholas Bank, at No. 7 East Fifty-fifth street, which was attended by a large number of guests.

W. B. HORNBLOWER MARRIED.

The Rejected Candidate for Supreme Court Judge Weds His First Wife's Sister.

William B. Hornblower, who has come into prominence by his rejection for a judgeship of the Supreme Court of the United States, was privately united in marriage yesterday to Mrs. Emily S. Nelson, a sister of his first wife.

The ceremony took place at St. James's Episcopal Church, Madison avenue and seventy-third street. The only other present was Charles H. Woodruff, of No. 14 East Sixty-ninth street, and Mrs. Woodruff and Mr. Hornblower's two sons, twelve and fourteen years of age.

From the church the party went to Mr. Hornblower's house at Madison avenue and seventy-third street. There was no reception, and almost immediately Mr. and Mrs. Hornblower entered their carriage and were driven down Madison avenue.
